Office of Conservation Issues Order for Operators to Take Precautionary Steps

JOINT INFORMATION CENTER

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

August 27, 2012
Office of Conservation Issues Order for Operators to Take Precautionary Steps

Bayou Corne investigatory well secured for storm
Baton Rouge, La. --

Louisiana Commissioner of Conservation James Welsh today issued an emergency order to all exploration and production operations in the state to take all necessary precautions to ensure their sites are safe as Tropical Storm Isaac, expected to make landfall as a Category 1 or greater hurricane.
